What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

The answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, bowels and bladder, curing a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), bowels, (as mucous colitis), bladder, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections it is often successful in affecting cures.

The "Favorite Prescription" is advised for the cure of one class of diseases—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities incident to women only. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nervine. For weak worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be found most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing about a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulæ of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient entering into these medicines.

The words of praise bestowed on the several ingredients entering into Doctor Pierce's medicines by such writers should have more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials, because such men are writing for the guidance of their medical brethren and know whereof they speak.

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American medicinal forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to accept as a substitute for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret nostrum.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, small, sugar-coated, easy to take as candy, regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

THE POPE'S ENCYCLICAL.

A special, enlarged edition of the Osservatore Romano last night gives the Latin text of the papal encyclical. It occupies more than seventeen columns. No papal utterance of Leo XIII carried with it greater discouragement of advanced thought.

The Pope, indeed, contends that he is but following in the footsteps of Leo, whose public acts are liberally quoted in the encyclical. The clause enjoining the establishment of college censors in each diocese for the revision of the Catholic literary output is especially discussed.

The words of the pontiff in connection with this subject are very impressive. No books or newspapers of modernist tendency may be left in the hands of any pupils in the universities or seminaries. He adds:

"Everything must be done to banish from your diocese every pernicious book. The bishops are to be above all human fear, to trample all fleshly imprudence under foot and heedless of the outcry of the wicked; are to remember our proscription, and to proscribe and tear out of the hands of the fairful all bad books and all bad writings. This is not only a right conferred on them, but a duty we impose on them."

At the end of encyclical the Pope says he foresees that the adversaries of the church will represent it as the enemy of science and progress.

"we will reply by our actions. We have decided to act with all power toward the foundation of a private institution, which shall group together the most illustrious representatives of Catholic science. It will be its object to favor and help, with Catholic truth for its light and guide, the progress of everything that can be called true science or erudition."

"To this accusation," says the Pope, There is much speculation as to whether the encyclical is aimed at one country more than another. Some regard it as specially directed against France, while others hold that the United States is aimed at, but it may be doubted whether the Pope was influenced by any national consideration.

TRIAL OF AN EX-PRIEST.

The trial of Ludwig Szczygiel, the unfrocked Roman Catholic priest, formerly of Chicago, for the murder of Andrew and Stephen Starzynski, in their restaurant, on the South Side, Pittsburg, recently, progressed rapidly yesterday and at the request of all concerned night sessions of court were ordered by Judge Carnahan in order to expedite the trial. This is an unusual procedure.

The accused man was attired in the regulation clerical garb, and when arraigned was pale and haggard. Through an interpreter he pleaded "not guilty." The morning session was sufficient time for securing the jury, and following the noon recess the taking of evidence was begun.

All the principals are Polanders, and many foreigners crowded into the courtroom. To prevent a demonstration of any kind county detectives were stationed in the courtroom. Judge Carnahan, under an act passed by the last legislature, named two attorneys to defend the priest, as the prisoner is penniless.

Several witnesses were examined yesterday. It was alleged that the priest admitted shooting the two men when locked up, but said he acted in self defense. The widow of Andrew Starzynski also testified as to the finding of the revolver, five chambers empty, under the bed in the priest's room.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to be.—D. H. BEACH, Midland City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Gibson & Timberman.

WILL FIGHT BLACK HAND.

Convinced that his foes' stealth render police protection useless to him, Joseph Gatti, of the Gatti-McQuade Paper Company, of Manhattan and Brooklyn, has surrounded himself by a strong force of private Italian detectives and will fight the Black Hand to the last ditch.

Thus far the would-be blackmailers have confined themselves to attempts against his property. They have threatened his life, too, and the faithfulness with which they have kept their promises to injure him financially lead his friends to believe that the danger of assassination is imminent. Repeated attempts to poison horses by strychnine have been reported by the drivers. A number of the attempts at poisoning have been foiled by the drivers' vigilance.

Five horses have been killed in this way, however, and several others have been rendered practically useless. Threats of incendiarism and of violence against Gatti and members of his family have been received almost daily for months. Gatti is a rich man, and the Black Hand puts its demands, which have varied in different communications, up in the thousands of dollars.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more live than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness, and phthisic, stops hemorrhage of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. DIED BY OWN HAND.

When Dr. A. Warner Shepard, who was married four months ago, at the age of 66 years, died suddenly in Brooklyn on Sunday morning, September 8, it was given out by relatives that death was caused by heart disease. Through Coroner Dr. Henry J. Brewer, however, it became known yesterday that the veteran physician had died from an overdose of morphine, self administered. He leaves an estate valued at more than $1,000,000, and a widow who is considably younger than himself.

In June last the deceased was married to Mary Myer, who it is said to be about 40 years old.

He had recently anticipated death and made a will.

Among other properties that he wished conveyed to his widow were over 50 houses which he owned in various parts of Brooklyn, the Bay Ridge home, which is valued at about $200,000, and about $40,000 in bonds.

Another queer incident came to light also when it became known that Dr. Shepard recently visited an undertakers establishment and selected a coffin.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 17, 1907.

Mr. FINLEY, president of the Southern Railway Company, was one of the principal speakers at the meeting in Chicago Saturday of the American Association of Freight Traffic Officers. He took the ground that the present agitation for legislation against railroads was certain to prevent much needed improvement and enlargement of railway service, because of the consequent necessary timidity of capitalists, and urged that railroad officials keep in touch with the public through the medium of the newspapers and present their side of the controversy in a frank and straightforward manner. He said, in part:

No one knows better than does the traffic officer the insistence with which shippers are demanding improved service, such as can be provided only by increases in trackage, by the purchase of additional cars and locomotives, and by increasing and improving facilities in every direction. For these needed improvements new capital is required, but men and women with money to invest hesitate, at the moment, to put it into railway property. The man with money to invest has no sentimental favorites. He is not guided by sentiment, but by plain business considerations. He may know that present and prospective traffic are sufficient to make railway investments profitable if charges that are fair and reasonable for the services performed are permitted. But when he sees the enactment of laws for the reduction of charges, without due regard for reasonableness, and laws subjecting railways to excessive and inequitable taxation in comparison with other forms of property, it is natural that he would hesitate or look elsewhere for opportunities for investment. * * * In our country public opinion and legislative action are influenced very largely by the newspapers. In a recent address before the National and Virginia Editorial Associations at the Jamestown Exposition I pointed out that for this reason it is of special importance that the newspapers should have correct information as to railway policies. They hear a great deal from the anti-railway side, but little from the railways. We ought to be frank in all our dealings with the press, so as to leave no occasion for adverse criticism or comment based upon lack of information as to any railway matters in which the public can have a proper interest. If the railways are to have the cordial support of the public, they must merit it. They must see to it that their service is the most efficient that their resources enable them to provide and that their charges are neither unreasonably high nor relatively unjust or discriminatory. We know that these are policies that the railways of the United States are endeavoring to carry out, but the great majority of the American people do not know it, and they cannot know it unless we, who come in contact with the public, embrace every proper opportunity to make it clear that the railways realize fully their duties to the people and are striving to perform them.

THAT Maxim Gorky, the Russian novelist, and Mme. Andrieva, the woman who accompanied him on his trip to America, are now married, is the news brought from Europe yesterday by Harold MacGrath, the author, who arrived in New York on the steamer Finland. Dr. MacGrath and his wife spent the summer on the island of Capri, near where Gorky now lives, and he states positively that the marriage has taken place. Gorky came to this country to lecture and collect money for the Russian revolutionists. When it became known that he had a wife in Russia, he was put out of a hotel, refused admittance to several others and was forced to take refuge with the woman in the house of a friend. His lecture tour was ruined, and he returned to Europe and wrote a book denouncing all Americans. Gorky had explained at the time of the influx of criticism, which he considered prudish, that the Russian law made it impossible for him to get a divorce, and that there was nothing wrong in his relations with the actress from a Continental point of view.

AS STATED in yesterday's Gazette advance figures of Pension Commissioner Warner's report show that 31,201 soldiers and pensioners of the civil war died during the past fiscal years. On June 30 there were 967,371 pensioners on the rolls, the smallest number for the past 15 years, but the amount disbursed for pensions was $138,155,412, a decrease of only $844,876 from the preceding year. The total amount paid out for pensions on account of the civil war is now $3,869,135,449 and the amount paid on account of the war with Spain and the insurrection in the Philippine Islands $18,909,512. During the year 238,249 new claims were allowed. This shows that the tax payers are to continue paying pensions indefinitely.

AT THE annual reunion of the survivors of the Black Horse Cavalry held last week at the Fauquier White Sulphur Springs but fourteen of the members of that famous command were present. A motion to limit the number of drinks at the reunion to one for each member present, or fourteen per man, was lost for want of a second.

THE straw hat gun usually fired on September 15th has been spiked.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Sept. 17.

Friends of a man said to be prominent socially and politically in this country and abroad, but who has been strangely absent from his usual haunts for nearly three days, appealed to the police early today to find him. So much did they dread publicity that they absolutely refused to give even the police his name. They did furnish a minute description of the man, however, and this was sent out to all precinct stations. The missing one is a member of the Cosmos Club, a local organization of scientific and literary lights.

"Take it from me there's something wrong with the present breed of human kings. Why did Root have to go up to Muldoon? The Secretary of State is doped as a wonder with the think tank, but he's off, when it comes to muscle and brawn. What the parents of this big country of ours have got to do is to get wise to President Roosevelt; inject a little strenuousness into their off-pring, and bring up children that are not mentally top heavy and physically weak." This, and other bits of philosophy were handed to a United Press representative today by John L. Sullivan. "Devote about a third of the time the kids put in school, cramming their heads full of useless knowledge, to physical exercise and we will have a race of men and women that thirty years from now will be fit for any old thing," continued the actor and ex champion. John L. and Jake Kilrain are doing a brotherly boxing turn at a local theatre this week. While John L. expounded the value of physical training, Jake lectured on the evils of drink. "Booze," he declared with much disdain—for both are on the water wagon and John L. proudly announces that this is his 287th week as a total abstainer—"is the slide to hell. No matter how good you are, how bright you are, how great your idea of your will power, if you dally with the stuff you are going to slide. I 'aint no fanatic. I have drank it, I have bought it and I have sold it. Me for the water wagon. It's experience that makes a fellow wise to any game and the booze game is a bum's plaything. If you get in the game you will end up a bum." Jake was plainly in earnest, and he looked as fresh and healthy as as the bare knuckle champion himself. "Back to the physical game, John," prompted Jake, and the big fellow again cut loose. "Let me tell you, I can go into any burg and spot the brainiest five hundred men there. I would simply look for five hundred hollow eyes, stoop-shouldered fellows, with mucky complexions, and lop sided walk The men of today's growth are top heavy. They go in for the higher stuff. It's a shame to bring up a promising youngster with his head full of has-been ideas. Why don't they give the kids a chance? Let them have regular instructors, and play ball, box, fence, run, jump, learn to swim, so they may be able to take care of themselves. What they get packed away in their nuts aint no good to 'em for they have got to go and find if things work out with 'em as they did with the people in the books. Take these military schools. They do the trick right. The boys are getting their muscles hardened along with the task of putting Greek and such truck into their heads. Let the public schools take up this business, and the people of the country, once they see the benefits, will keep the game a going."

President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, today issued an appeal to organized labor for funds to assist the striking telegraphers. The appeal was issued after consultation between President Gompers and President Small, of the telegraphers' union, and is based on a similar appeal sent out by the latter under yesterday's date. It says "An honorable adjustment of the contest can be attained, if the companies understood that the telegraphers cannot be starved into an unconditional surrender. To accomplish this purpose, labor must come to the financial assistance of the telegraphers. All unions are urgently requested to at once donate and voluntarily contribute as generously as possible." The appeal signed by Mr. Small recites the demands of the telegraphers and charges the telegraph companies with bad faith in their negotiations with the union's representatives. It states that over 80 per cent. of the commercial telegraphers are now on strike, and over 90 per cent. of those directly employed by the two companies and the Associated Press. Including Mr. Gompers says: "Feeling that we cannot with honor to ourselves and in justice to our fellow workers and those in sympathy with the trade union movement surrender, we make this appeal for financial assistance in order that we may care for our members while the strike lasts. Our fight is won now, so far as the sticking of our men is concerned, but we must have outside assistance in order to win."

Mrs. Cassie M. Chadwick, who, posing as Andrew Carnegie's natural daughter, swindled Ohio and eastern banks and capitalists out of millions in loans on bogus securities, was stricken with a nervous collapse at the penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio, yesterday, which has left her temporarily blind. Her condition is serious, and it is the opinion of the prison physicians that she will never live to serve out her ten-year sentence, two years of which she has completed.

Six foreign laborers were drowned at Dam No. 2, in the Allegheny river, at Aspinwall, Pa., last night by the sinking of a boat load of stone. He was placed under bond to appear at the coroner's inquest. When the boat capsized the stone fell on top of the men and pinned them to the bottom of the river.

Two children, Edward Howard, aged five, and Charles Thompson, aged four, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed a stable and a washhouse at Moundsville W. Va., yesterday. This, the police say, is another link in the chain of circumstantial evidence being forged against Archer. Two writing desks were ransacked, but no money or other valuables were touched, although both were within reach. Important disclosures are expected soon.

SHENANDOAH VALLEY DAY.

While it is true that nowhere does the sun shine so brightly, or the flowers bloom so sweetly, as in Virginia, it is in the historic valley of Shenandoah that the sun shines a little brighter and the flowers bloom a little sweeter than anywhere else. Fertile farms, beautiful orchards of luscious fruits, blue banked mountains, sparkling rivers, prosperous homes, nothing can compare with it. Now, progressive to a high degree, the citizens of this chosen valley have elected to celebrate a certain day at the Jamestown Ter-Centennial, and that date has been fixed for September 25, when it is expected that so many will leave the valley that even a crow would be lonesome there on that day. Addresses will be made by Gov. Swanson, Hon. Harry St. George Tucker and by some of the leading citizens of the valley, the orator of the day being Mr. Richard E. Byrd, of Winchester, and there will be special parades, military drills, band concerts, warpath attractions and many other features in honor of the occasion, to be under the management of Lieut. H. N. Cootes, military secretary of the Exposition. Lieut Cootes is a loyal Shenandoah valleyite himself and it goes without saying that he will leave nothing undone which would insure a good time to his fellow citizens.

This will be Florida Day as well and special events prepared for that day will belong to the Shenandoah valleyites as well.

MURDER IN CULPEPER.

William Seal and Byrd Jenkins have been arrested, charged with the murder Saturday night of William Smith, a reputable farmer, of Culpeper county. Seal is the brother-in-law of Smith, who was called from his home about 9 o'clock Saturday night by some unknown person, who asked him to assist in mending a wagon, which was in the road in front of the Smith residence.

As soon as Smith appeared in the moonlight, without a moment's warning he was shot down and almost instantly killed by persons in hiding in the underbrush and trees about forty feet away from the front porch. Two loads of buckshot tore Smith's body almost to pieces, one load mangling his head and the other striking near his heart. From his cries it is thought that Smith recognized his murderers, but he died before he was able to impart his knowledge to the members of his family, who rushed to his side on hearing the shots fired. It is alleged that a woman is in the case, but her name is being withheld by the detectives.

The arrest of Seal and Jenkins was made yesterday. Seal had been heard to threaten Smith's life, and Saturday Jenkins borrowed a gun, which he is now unable to produce. He declines to say what he did with it.

There is said to have been domestic trouble between the families. William Smith left a wife and children.

"THE OLD SCRATCH."

How the Evil One Came to be Popularly Known as "The Old Scratch."

One of the many familiar names of his satanic majesty is "The Old Scratch." It is undoubtedly due to the fact that scratching is so disagreeable that people thought it no worse than the evil one. A scalp full of dandruff keeps one scratching all the time; not only disagreeable but considered very ine'egant in polite society—as it should be—because one ought to keep the scalp so clean that it would not itch. To cure the scalp of dandruff effectively, use Newbro's Herpicide. It kills the germ that creates the dandruff, which is preliminary to falling hair, and, finally, baldness No other hair preparation kills the dandruff germ. Herpercide also is a very delightful and effective hair-dressing. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 cents in stamps for same to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes—50c and $1.00. E. S. Today's Telegraphic News.

Pope's Denunciation of Modernism.

Paris, Sept. 17.—Pope Pius's denunciation of modernism marks an epoch in the Catholic church's history, in the opinion of the Roman clergy throughout Europe.

The policy it represents is accepted as of greater importance than the course mapped out for the church along the lines definitely dealt with in yesterday's encyclical.

From Pope Leo's policy of half measures the present pontiff has broken away forever. Extending toward the whole world his attitude in the warfare between the church and the French government, his followers point out, Pius stands for battle to the last ditch rather than a compromise, which in his opinion endangers the integrity of the church's dogmas.

In the encyclical high churchman see the initial step in a series which will definitely align the papacy as advocated by Pius against any movement calculated to weaken its power or influence in the slightest degree or to open the door for changes calculated ultimately to undermine the foundation of the Roman faith.

"No papal encyclical of modern times has compared with the last one in importance," said a high ecclesiastic of the Paris archbishopric today. "Its clearness leaves no doubt concerning the church's attitude toward modernism. It leaves the world free to choose. The people must be Catholic or non-catholic."

London, Sept. 17.—Should the Pope's latest encyclical precipitate an actual break between followers of the old faith and disciples of modernism, English Catholics will welcome it joyfully, British adherents of the Roman Catholic Church declare.

"It is better to cast our enemies out than to permit them to work among us secretly," said a high English Jesuit commenting today upon the Pope's denunciation of extreme liberalism. "So if the encyclical causes a schism it will be for the best."

"Immediate excommunication will probably follow for those who, inclined to modernism, try to hide their beliefs from their religious teachers." Canon Moyes, the best known Catholic theologian in England, pronounces the encyclical wise and timely, and is sure it will be received by British Catholics loyally and with implicit obedience.

Robbed by Women.

New York, Sept. 17.—Frank Offerman, a young bookmaker from the West, caused the arrest today of two handsome, fair-haired women of Jersey City on the charge of relieving him of a roll of $1,700. Offerman was "looking around New York" the other night when he entered a cafe and saw the two charmers. They were easy to get acquainted with and were good looking. Offerman wanted to make an impression, so he said, with some show of pride: "I am a bookmaker and always carry a big roll with me." The women were as pleased as he was. First they wanted a tip. Then they wanted to see his "dope sheet," and, without noticing that the cash was folded in the sheet he handed it across the table. One of the women quickly faded from Offerman's vision and the other was not slow in following. When they were arrested at the ferry dock today they said they were Florence Edwards and May Burgess. They gave their address in Jersey City as 5b Grand street.

Collapse of H. H. Rogers.

New York, Sept. 17.—Standard Oil Company officials, it is whispered in Wall street, never expect H. H. Rogers to have much to do with the corporation's affairs again.

Even before his last trip to Europe, well authenticated reports have it, leading figures in the big concern considering his days of usefulness numbered began considering the choice of a successors. The stroke from which he suffered last July is said to have hastened action.

Men in touch with the Standard Oil's plans say there is little doubt that H. C. Frick will be the company's active manager.

Rogers's acquaintances say the terrific strain under which he spent nearly all of his business life makes his sudden collapse less surprising. Stories are told of the remorselessness with which he worked, his indifference to fatigue and the recklessness with which he sacrificed his health on the altar of commercial necessity.

Treasure Box Lost.

New York, Sept. 17.—Trainmen on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad complained bitterly today against the implication that they could return a box, said to have contained $196,000 in cash and jewels valued at $40,000, which was lost on a train between Larchmont and Grand Central station yesterday by a woman of great wealth, whose identity is carefully concealed. Advertisements appeared in all New York papers today offering a reward of $10,000 with "no question asked" for its return. Benjamin F. Norris, a Brooklyn attorney, who represents the woman, made every possible effort today to get some trace of the missing money and jewels. Morris was extremely anxious to conceal his client's identity.

Bond Fixed.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Judge Grosscup in the Federal Court today fixed the bond for the appearance of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana in its appeal from Judge Landis's decision at $4,000,000. This is to guarantee that all the property of the company in Illinois will be kept intact until the appeal is heard. He fixed the bond in the plea for a writ of supercedeas at $2,000,000. Standard Oil of New Jersey was accepted as surety in both cases.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 17.—The feature of the trading from the opening was the apparent absence of long stock. There were offers of large blocks of steel, copper and Reading, but the orders to offer these stocks came from a house identified with the bear side of the market and has been reported on several occasions as covering its short lines at large profits. Northern Pacific was the most prominent of the railroad list and was in presistent demand. Amalgmated advanced 2 points to 60 3-4. Smelting advanced 2 3-8 to 90.

Explosion on Battleship---Forty Persons Killed.

Tokio, Sept. 17—An explosion is reported on the Japanese battle-ship Kashima, a 12-inch shell having burst with forty casualties.

The explosion occurred inside the gun shield, following an attempt to remove an unexploded shell from the gun after target practice near Kure, at 4 p. m., September 9.

The battleship, under Captain Kolzumi, reached Kure two hours later, with its forty killed and wounded. Among the fatally injured were a lieutenant, two cadets and one staff officer whose rank has not yet been learned.

The Kashima is one of the largest and best equipped vessels in the Japanese navy. It is a sister ship of the Katori, is built of steel, with twin screws, two funnels and two masts, each provided with a fighting top.

Its length is 445 feet beam 78 feet 2 inches, draught 26 feet 8 inches and displacement 16,600 tons. The armament consists of four 12-inch guns in a citadel, twelve 12-pounders, six maxims, three 3-pounders and five torpedo tubes

A later dispatch says the cause of the explosion is under investigation. The report that a shell burst is erroneous. Powder took fire, evidently from gas emitted from the gun breach when opened for reloading. The Kaishima's hull is undamaged.

Terrible Fate of Lineman.

New York, Sept. 17.—Hanging head downward until his foot burned off at the ankle permitting his lifeless body to crash twenty feet downward to the ground beneath, Alexander Borax, an electrical lineman, was electrocuted in the Bronx today. It was the most sensational accidental killing ever witnessed in this city.

Borax had placed his lunch box at the top of a pole carrying a number of high pressure wires and while trying to reach it lost his balance. Uttering a terrified shriek, he plunged downward through the big copper electricity carriers, his foot catching between two of the wires. For several minutes he hung there, his body twitching and writhing with the force of the current. Suddenly smoke began to issue from the point of contact, then the flesh, sinews and bone began to sizzle and burn and within five minutes the foot was severed and the body fell to the ground.

Specators, among them several women, were so unnerved by the occurrence that they had to receive medical attention from an ambulance surgeon.

Recalcitrant Witness.

New York, Sept. 17.—Commodore E. C. Benedict, yachtman and banker, proved a decidedly recalcitrant witness when he took the stand today in the federal suit to dissolve the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey before special examiner Franklin Ferris, of St. Louis. He said that he and Anthony N. Brady formerly owned three quarters of the stock of the Manhattan Oil Company, but that he had sold his share and he declined at first to positively identify that company. Later he said his stock went to the General Industrial Development Company of England. Benedict said he first went into the oil business to protect his gas interests in Indianapolis and sold his oil stock for $889,842. He did not remember the name of the purchaser, but delivered the stock and bonds to the Central Trust Company. Brady, he said, was now in Europe.

A series of questions regarding the actual transfer of the stock brought out the fact that Brown Brothers, of New York, furnished the funds to the trust company.

Terms of Peace.

Paris, Sept. 17.—The conditions upon which the leading tribes are willing to agree to declare peace in Morocco are:

The tribesmen have been granted until Thursday to submit their demands on France.

Collision in a Tunnel.

She expressed a keen interest in the work of the peace conference.

New Jersey Democrats.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 17.—Frank S. Katzenbach, former mayor of this city, will be nominated for governor by the democrats in their State convention this afternoon. Every indication points to his selection on the second ballot after a complimentary, "favorite son" vote. At midnight it looked as though former United States Senator J. S. Smith, jr., of Essex, had beaten Katzenbach, and James E. Martin, of Union, would be the nominee. Early this morning, however, south Jersey showed unexpected strength for Katzenbach.

DEATH OF ADMIRAL WALKER.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section partly cloudy tonight, Wednesday fair; light variable winds.

DAY OF ATONEMENT.

Yom Kippur, the most solemn day of the Hebrew year, will begin at sunset today. It is known as the Day of Atonement, and is observed with fasting and prayer. Yom Kippur falls on the tenth day of the month of Tisri, and is the concluding ceremonial in the New Year's observance. The season opens on New Year, or Rosh Hashonah, the first day of Tisri, which is observed as a day of praise and prayer. The intervening days are known as days of penitence. The Jewish day begins at sunset. The ceremonies begin at sunset one day and end at sunset the next. Yom Kippur is strictly observed by all Jews. Every one over thirteen years old fasts for twenty-four hours. The burden of the services is penitence. The services vary at the synagogues. At some of them they begin early and are continued practically all day, The traditional chants are sung and special musical programmes are rendered. Services will be held in the Synagogue in this city tonight. They will be conducted by Rabbi A. Blum, of New York.

OPERA HOUSE LAST NIGHT.

The dramatic season of 1907-08 opened at the Opera House last night, the play presented being "The Holy City." Clarence Bennett and his company gave a careful interpretation of the drama and were vigorously applauded during the show. Mr. Bennett portrayed the roles of John the Baptist and Judas, the traitor in his usual good style and won for himself many friends. Miss Edna Marshall as Salome was excelle t, as was also Clarice Hail as Herodius, George Dill as Marius, Norris Donnelly as Andrew and Harry Arnold as Herod. The rest of the company were above the average. The drama throughout was heartily enjoyed by the crowded house.

The Opera House this season is under the efficient and courteous management of Mr. Howard T. Underwood, who will see that every attention is paid to the wants of the patrons of the house. It is the purpose of the manager to book nothing but first-class attractions. Special policemen have been stationed in various parts of the house, and any disorder will be immediately stopped and the offenders arrested.

CAR DERAILED.

Motor car No. 21, of the electric railway, left the rails yesterday morning at the sharp curve on upper King street, where a recently constructed line from Cameron street joins the main track. The car was again derailed at the same point at 6 o'clock in the evening. On this occasion traffic over the road was suspended for nearly two hours. No one was injured, but there was some excitement among the passengers, especially at the second derailment, when both cars were filled with persons returning to their homes from Washington. When the second derailment occurred some of the passengers, imagining that a serious wreck had occurred, made hasty exit from the cars, some leaping from the windows.

SHARKS IN THE POTOMAC?

According to the story told in Washington by Rose Washington, an old colored woman, who lives at Maryland Point about 40 miles down the Potomac, sharks drove a sturgeon ashore near her house a few days ago. There were five sharks in the attacking party, and as they came close to the beach, Rose and her grandchildren drove them off with stones and then tried to pull the sturgeon out of the shallow water in which it was floundering, but were unable to do so. Then they got a yoke of oxen and with these at one end of a rope tied around the sturgeon's head they managed to land the fish. Rose sold the sturgeon's spawn for caviar at a good figure.

CORNER STONE LAYING.

The corner stone of the Methodist Episcopal Church South at Ilda will be laid Thursday, September 26. There will be all day exercises. Revs. E. V. Regester and C. D. Bulla, of Alexandria, and W. F. Locke and J. W. Smith, of Washington, will make addresses. The corner stone will be laid by the Junior Order of United Americans.

The M. E. Church South at Pender, Fairfax county, will be dedicated Sunday, October 13th. Rev. E. V. Regester will preach at 11 a. m., and Rev. J. W. Smith at 3 and 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

RIVER NOTES.

The three-masted schooner Emma S. Lord, from New Mills, Nova Scotia, with laths for Washington, anchored off this port last night. She was inspected today and given a clean bill of health, and later was towed to her destination.

The schooner Lilie W. Owings, from the Rappahannock river with canned goods to Charles King & Sons and F. S. Harper, has arrived.

The schooner Norwalk is being loaded with lumber by Smoot & Co. for the lower river.

BASEBALL.

The Alexandria Athletic Association baseball team will play the Atlantic team, of the Capital City League, on next Saturday. This team is composed of the best players of the Martinsburg, W. Va. team, which has defeated the strongest teams in their locality. Dutch Steizer, whom Washington will give a try out the next week, will be in the box for visitors, while Salb will do the catching. Donaldson and Kraft will be Alexandria's battery and a close contest is promised.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

As heretofore stated the pre-convention meeting of the Alexandria Local Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be held at Grace Church tonight. The speaker of the occasion will be Mr. Bert T. Amos, of Washington, corresponding secretary and treasurer of the National Council. The address of welcome will be delivered by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, of this city. An interesting programme has been arranged.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

But two cases were on the docket this morning.

Officer Arrington yesterday arrested Isaac Edney, colored, on complaint of Mary Allen, also colored, who charged Edney with unmercifully beating her with a fishing rod. The assault occurred on Franklin street, near the shipyard, and, according to the woman's version of the affair, was provoked by her refusing to allow the assailant to sit on a chair in front of her house. Edney was fined $20.

The other case was that of Frederick Watkins, colored, who was charged with assaulting Basil Lucas, colored. The attack, according to the evidence, was unprovoked, and the accused was fined $5.

ALL FORFEIT COLLATERAL.

Policeman Robert Morris and Charles Kelly, of Washington, and Isaac Wood, of Alexandria, who were caught in a round-up of hunters on the marsh back of Shepherds Point Saturday, each forfeited $5 collateral in the Police Court in Washington yesterday, instead of appearing to stand trial on the charge of violating the game law. Policeman Morris stated that he did not know he was on prohibited territory when he was gunning Saturday near Shepherds Landing until Policemen Presto and Passeno of the harbor precinct told him he must go to the station house.

THE OLD FIRST CHURCH.

The old First Presbyterian Church building on south Fairfax street has been thoroughly remodeled, repainted and repaired and made to look like it did in days gone by. The old belfry on the church is also to be repaired. The church is now occupied by the congregation of Bethany M. P. Church with Rev. W. M. Poisal as pastor.

Must Per a Hangman.

The British army was once in difficulties through the lack of a hangman Murder was committed by a soldier in the Crimea, but nobody could be found to carry out the sentence of the court martial. It was announced that £20 and a free discharge would be granted to the man undertaking the task. At last a man did volunteer. He was a newcomer to the army. On the night prior to the date fixed for the execution they locked up the hangman in a stable to keep him safe. In the morning the party at the gallows waited, but there was no hangman. He had gone mad during the night or else he was now simulating madness. The officer in command turned to one of his captains with, "Captain, you will have the goodness to hang the prisoner!" The captain changed countenance, but he pulled himself together and appealed to the sergeants with, "Which of you will hang this man?" And to spare his captain one of the men volunteered. He afterward had the satisfaction of flogging the man who had volunteered and failed.

The Way to Work.

If work has to be done the only way to escape will paralysis is to launch oneself upon the task, realising that if it is difficult it is not likely to grow easier and that some sort of a beginning must be made. "Keep the faculty of effort alive in you by a little gratuitous exercise every day," writes a canny psychologist in his chapter on "Habit." This gratuitous exercise it is that trains the will to rule life and destiny; it is the one great secret of success. Postponing of disagreeable duties means laxness invading the will, a certain slackening of all the mental nature, an invasion of a paralytic tendency. If the will failed to obey at a given moment yesterday it is vastly less likely to obey today, whereas a daily habit of forceful inhibiting or commanding makes for that most desirable of all endowments, "a completely fashioned will." — Harper's Weekly.

The First Nails.

The first nails were undoubtedly the sharp teeth of various animals. Then it is believed pointed fragments of flint followed. The first manufactured metal nails were of bronze. The nail with which Jael killed Sisera was a wooden tent pin, probably pointed with iron. Bronze nails have been found in the Swiss lake dwellings, in several places in France and in the valley of the Nile. Until the nineteenth century iron nails were forged, a blacksmith being able to make only two or three dozen a day. The first cut nails were made by Jeremiah Wilkinson in Rhode Island in 1775. The first patented nail machine was by Perkins, 1795, and its product of 200,000 nails a day was considered so enormous that some persons deemed the result due to supernatural agency.

How to Grow Miniature Oaks.

Secure a good ripe acorn and suspend it by a piece of cord within half an inch or so of water contained in a glass. There let it stay, for if permitted to remain without disturbance for a few months it will burst, send a root into the water and shoot upward a straight, tapering stem covered with beautiful little green leaves. In this manner a young oak tree can be cultivated and become an interesting object to all that behold it. As soon as the plant has made its appearance it will be found beneficial to change the water frequently.

Exorbitant Premiums.

"What would you think of a 99 per cent premium?" said an insurance agent. "A premium of $99,000 on a $100,000 policy. Hardly worth taking out, eh?" Such a policy was once taken out, though, on a ship thought to be lost. It is a common thing on overdue ships to take out policies at 80 or 85 or 90 per cent. On the Bulgaria and the Croft in 1899 policies at 90 per cent were taken out, and on the Adelaide Mary, even after two of her lifeboats had been picked up, a policy of 92 per cent was issued.

One Evil Chases the Other.

Visitor to the West Indies (who has been warned against bathing in the river because of alligators, but has been told by the boatmen that there are none at the river's mouth)—By Jove, this is ripping! But, I say, how do you know there are no alligators here? Boatman—Well, you see, sah, de alligator am so turr'ble feared ob de shark.—Punch.

English Men and Women.

Englishwomen are inherently shy, and half the bad manners with which we are credited as a nation is the result of this shyness. Englishmen suffer from it to the same extent, only in their case shyness is merely self consciousness and part and parcel of an immense conceit.—London Ladies' Field.

Saw Her Chance.

Wife—Mrs. Flareup threw a flatiron at her husband last night because he accidentally sat down on her new bonnet. Now, I couldn't do a thing like that. Husband—You couldn't? Wife—Of course not. I haven't any new bonnet.

Took Her Part.

Mamma—You must always remember to take your little sister's part Tommy. Small Tommy—I do. I took her part of the cake not five minutes ago.—Chicago News.

Original.

"My wife is a most original woman," said Brown. "Why, when I proposed to her instead of saying, 'This is so sudden,' she said, 'Well, I think it's about time.'"

For Feminine Jurors.

In breach of promise cases the presence of female jurors among the male jurors would certainly benefit the men, as they would at once see through the wiles of their own sex, disconnect the picture hat and the pretty gown and disclose the hussy at heart in the pleading, innocent betrayed one.—Lady Violet Greville in London Opinion.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so week from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid makes it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, billiousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c.
